REPORT ON THE POSTER MAKING COMPETITION: CELEBRATING THE ROLE OF WOMEN IN CONSTITUTION MAKING

The Poster Making Competition was held on 10-03-2025 aimed to celebrate and highlight the critical role that women have played in the formation of constitutions, particularly the Indian Constitution. This event not only encouraged creativity but also focused on raising awareness about the invaluable contributions of women in shaping national laws and policies."

OBJECTIVE OF THE COMPETITION

The primary objective of the competition was to engage participants in visual storytelling that reflects the pivotal role women played in the development of the constitution. Through this, the event aimed to foster greater understanding and appreciation of women's influence in constitutional history."

EVENT DETAILS

The competition was held on 10-03-2025 at Fine Lab of the College, with participation of number of students from various semesters of the College. The event was organized by Department of Fine Art in collaboration with department of History.

THEME EXPLANATION

The theme, 'Celebrating the Role of Women in Constitution Making,' was chosen to recognize the contributions of prominent women such as Sarojini Naidu, Kasturba Gandhi, and Hansa Mehta, who played essential roles during India's independence struggle and in the drafting of the Indian Constitution. The theme emphasized the empowerment of women, their voices in governance, and the need for gender equality in legal frameworks."

POSTER THEMES AND CREATIVE PROCESS

The posters submitted by participants reflected a wide range of creative interpretations of the theme. Some posters depicted iconic women like Sarojini Naidu and Dr. B.R. Ambedkar's interactions with female leaders. Other posters used symbolic representations such as scales of justice and the Indian flag to illustrate the theme of gender equality in constitutional making.

CONCLUSION

The Poster Making Competition was a success, not only in terms of participation and creativity but also in raising awareness about the importance of women in shaping constitutional frameworks. The event provided an opportunity for participants and viewers alike to reflect on the need for gender equality in both governance and the making of laws."
