REPORT ON NATIONAL ANTHEM SINGING COMPETITION

On the occasion of the 78th Independence Day of India, a National Anthem Singing Competition was organised by the College Cultural Committee at 11: 30 am on 02-08-2025. The event was held in the college auditorium with the aim of instilling patriotic values among students and encouraging them to express their love for the nation.

The program began with a warm welcome by Mr. Arshad Sauleh (Art Teacher) who highlighted the significance of freedom and the role of youth in preserving the integrity of the nation. Students from various Courses viz-a-viz Raksh Bahar (M.A 2nd Sem), Arif Rashid (MA 2nd Sem), Puran Bakshi (B.Ed 1st Sem), Sushma Pandith (B.Ed 1st Sem), Sonu Bhat (B.Ed 1st sem) actively participated in the competition, showcasing their talent and national enthusiasm. The competition was judged based on coordination, timing, and adherence to the official anthem protocol. The judging panel included, Dr. Shabina (HoD English), Dr. Tawheeda Rasool (HoD Mathematics) and Prof. Nahida Naseem (AP, Dept. of Education), their valuable feedback and expert opinions added great value to the event. The jury unanimously judged Sushma Pandith at 3rd position, Puran Bakshi at 2nd position while Arif Rashid as the winner (1st position) of the National Anthem Singing competition.

The program not only uplifted the patriotic spirit among students but also celebrated the freedom and unity of our great nation. The atmosphere during the performances was filled with respect, pride and a deep sense of unity. Such programs are essential in educational institutions to foster national values, creativity, and a sense of belonging among students.

The program concluded with the formal vote of thanks presented by Mr. Arshad Sauleh wherein he appreciated all the members of the cultural committee, faculty members from various disciplines and students for participating in the program. The whole session was moderated by the Mr. Arshad Sauleh and report of the program was penned down by Prof. Nahida (Member Cultural Committee).
