REPORT OF ABDUL AHAD AZAD INTER COLLEGE TABLE TENNIS TOURNAMENT 2026

The Women's Table Tennis Team of Government College of Education Srinagar delivered an impressive performance in the ongoing Inter-College Table Tennis Tournament held at Government Degree College Bemina.

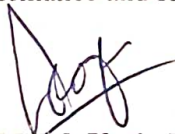

The team began its campaign on a positive note by registering a convincing victory against Government Degree College Budgam in the preliminary round. Continuing their excellent form, the GCOE Srinagar women's team advanced to the quarterfinals, where they faced Government College for Women Nawakadal.

In an exciting quarterfinal encounter, the team displayed remarkable coordination, determination, and sportsmanship to secure a well deserved victory and book their place in the semifinals of the tournament.

The semifinal clash against Government Degree College Bemina proved to be a thrilling contest. Demonstrating outstanding skill and fighting spirit, the players of Government College of Education Srinagar emerged victorious in a nail-biting match and successfully advanced to the finals.

In the final match, the team faced Government College for Women M.A. Road. Despite putting up a spirited performance and giving a tough fight throughout the contest, the GCOE Srinagar women's team finished as runners-up after an exciting final encounter.

The remarkable journey of the team throughout the tournament reflects their hard work, dedication, discipline, and commitment towards sports. Prof. (Dr.) Seema Naz congratulated the Department of Physical Education and the team for their outstanding performance and for bringing laurels to the institution.
